Might Have Been Worse.

Tuesday on the Saginaw road north of Chandler a wreck occurred which might have resulted seriously for some one. The train crew in leaving Chandler had taken on a car of steel. Arriving at the big hill they found they would have to leave that car for the next trip. Returning later with a train load of logs they were unable to stop in coming down the hill and crashed into the car of steel, derailing several log cars and causing a general smashup. August Lindstrom in the melee sustained a severe cut in the face and a broken finger.—Williams News.
